

Chitarra with zucchini, mint and lime

Invited friends round for a bite to eat and you still don't know what to make them?

How about this great dish of pasta alla chitarra with creamed zucchini, mint and lime that recalls the fresh flavours of a mojito cocktail?

Actually, it's even more refreshing than that and it certainly won't give you a hangover... because, you know, as the years start to go by, all it takes is a couple of cocktails to make your head spin for days!

Ingredients (2 Servings)

Shopping List

- ☐ 200 g of Chitarra Pasta Armando
- ☐ 20 g of Mint
- ☐ Extra virgin olive oil

- ☐ 4 Roman zucchini
- ☐ 1 Lime
- ☐ Salt

Preparation

In a non-stick pan heat a splash of extra virgin olive oil and add the diced zucchini.

Cook for ten or so minutes on a low heat and then blend together with the mint and lime juice until you have an even cream.

Boil the spaghetti alla chitarra. Drain the pasta al dente and add to the pan with the creamed zucchini and add a spoonful of pasta cooking water.

As soon as the water has helped form a delicious cream, run to the table to devour this great dish.
